1. Soviet experts, recently in Warsaw to advise on the continued construction of the Warsaw subway, discovered an excess of water in the ground and departed for Moscow without solving this problem. 25X1
2. The Russians and the Poles cannot reach an agreement on the means by which the subway will cross the Vistula. The Soviet authorities are demanding a tunnel, while the Polish authorities are advocating a bridge. The Soviet plan would exceed the allotted budget, of which 5,000 million zloty have been spent to date.
